

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY STATEMENT

Merefields Electronics understand the need and will take all reasonable steps to protect the environment when conducting its business.

We recognise the need to minimise waste, utilising recycled and renewable products and recycling whenever possible.

We aim to minimise the use of energy resources where possible.

We will ensure that all our employees are informed regarding the global benefits of environmental protection and act accordingly in line with our Environmental Policy.

We will regularly review our Environmental Policy.

November 2021

